

PAG BOD Meeting Minutes: 5 March, 2025 by Leslie Scott /PAG Secretary

Meeting Opens: 5:05pm

In Attendance: Jeanne Trueax, Lisa Smernoff, Carolyn Bayne, Gail Hayden, Dianne Gilbert, Elvi Bjorkquist, Stuart Hayden, Leslie Scott

Art in the Park: 17 people entered so far. Note that there is no time limit to getting your entry filled out. Also, please no typing on top of your entry images. Save the file as Title of piece followed by your last name.

There is still no recommended budget for the costs of putting on Art in the Park.

Deadline on poster contest entry: 1 April. Winner receives $100.

Advertising: Currently advertising for entries on Colorado Artist Tour, Facebook, PAG website. All current PAG members received a MailChimp ad for ATP.

Will need to advertise to the public as well. Possibilities are banners for light poles, Parker Lifestyle magazine, Around Town by the Chamber of Commerce.

Discussion of various places and types of printed material such as Sundance, Moo, Vistaprint.

Reminder that tent set-up day is March 10 at 11am. Will look for damages and request replacements according to how it goes. Member Tents to be rented for $110 per half.

Volunteers for ATP: Looking for volunteers to set up Member Tents. Asking Mark Hollenbeck. Contacting Anita Hoffman for info on running the Silent Auction. Also, volunteers needed to monitor the Silent Auction and the Parking Lot. Plan to use Sign-Up Genius.

Discussion on adding a benefit to volunteering, such as $10 gift certificate and entry in a drawing for 1 year of PAG membership for free.

Portfolio Day: Still trying to get volunteer judges for student art show at PACE.

Member Meetings: Elvi goes over all future meeting plans for the year, including Electing a new PAG Board of Directors in October.

Note: Karin Moser no longer able to be Parker Chamber of Commerce Rep. Stuart Hayden will look into it.

Note: PAG's social media is going well, no problems.

NAP Reception: Jeanne reminds the board of the NAP Reception time and urges attendance.

“Human Touch” Show at the Schoolhouse Gallery: Jeanne reminds of the deadline and urges artists to enter. Also, volunteers needed on April 5th to hang the show.

Next Show is “Nature’s Palette”.

Meeting Adjourned by Jeanne Trueax at 6:23pm.

