August 2021 Edition

MONTHLY NEWS FROM THE BAY AREA MUSTANGS, INC.

(Article by Rumer Mills, Investigative Reporter)

This month we are pleased to share the Pony Tale of Dave Lyman and his 2007 Mustang GT.

Dave is retired now, and currently lives in Lakeland with April Cox, and they have two daughters and three grandchildren.

Now

that he has time on his hands, he loves car shows, movies, spending time with their dog, Jolene, his children and grandchildren and going to concerts (but not necessarily in this order).

Dave previously owned a 1967 289 Mustang convertible, a 1996 Mustang GT, and a 2006 Mustang GT. In addition to being a BAM! member, he is also a member of several different Mustang clubs and groups.

Dave purchased his 2007 Mustang GT in April of 2018. It was previously owned, and was a 2007 GT premium in satin silver with a 4.6 engine automatic trans which was lightly modded and tuned. He calls his Mustang 007, naming it after Sir Sean Connery, the original James Bond. Dave relates the year of his car "2-007" with Bond. Get it?

Everywhere Dave goes with his Mustang is a fun trip for both of them. He and April have received 91 awards between past and current Mustangs. He heard about BAM! through our President, Frank Morales, and looks forward to making plenty of BAM! friendships.

Bay Area Mustangs is a different kind of car club. We are a club where friendships are just as important as our Mustangs and, just like when we maintain our Mustangs, a little effort goes a long way. We treat each other with old fashioned respect, and we are each accountable for our actions. Our members agree that kindness and courtesy are the hallmark of a fun and welcoming environment. From the Newsroom...

Happy August fellow BAM! members!!

Here in the Newsroom we have another big celebration going on. Yes, Bay Area Mustangs is only half way into our first year and we have already hit the “100” mark. That’s right, we now have over 100 BAM! members!! Cue the confetti!

That is quite an accomplishment, and all of us at “The Voice” congratulate our BAM! Board of Directors for all their hard work.

I recently asked the Newsletter Staff what ideas they would like to share with BAM! members. You know what I mean, suggestions for how members can help the Board in continuing to make Bay Area Mustangs so successful.

Rumer Mills suggested that members help our President come up with fun and crazy new games to play at Gatherings. That was a good suggestion.

Rusty Sparks suggested that members offer up tours of their garages, as a future event. That wasn’t too bad of a suggestion.

Pepper Mills suggested that members recommend great eateries that we could support on a cruise. I thought that was a good idea until I realized that Pepper is just comforted by being around salt and pepper shakers.

Marbles Madcap and Lupe Minute put their heads together and came up with the recommendation that we hold a “Who’s your favorite reporter” contest. I thought that was a rather dangerous suggestion and quickly moved on to ask Ida Sage what she thought.

Ida, of course, calmly suggested that all members celebrate our “100th” milestone by writing to “The Voice” to tell us what they love most about the Newsletter so far. She wisely said it was a good team building tool for all BAM! members.

And with a smile on my face, I knew that she had the best suggestion of all!

Happy “100” BAM!

If my body was a car I'd trade it in for a newer model. Cause every time I cough or sneeze, my radiator leaks and my exhaust backfires.

Because a

Dash of

Pepper

Is just ...

... enough

(by Pepper Mills, Reporter at Large)

With this ongoing strain of a pandemic dragging on, now is a good time to take our minds off the negative, and focus on the positive ... after all, that is what BAM! is all about.

So this month I’m introducing my new initiative. I call it:

“Be Different, Be Kind.”

The goal of this initiative is simply to remember that everyone has had a tough time over the last year, yet some have still gone out and helped to keep us well, keep us fed, and to bring us all the things we need to see in our local stores.

These “front line workers” can have a tough time trying to do their work, because people are so stressed out that people take their anxiety out on these people. When I began hearing of this, I admit to being surprised. I would have thought that people would be expressing their gratitude.

So I’m calling on all BAM! members to support this effort. Take a moment, just once each day, and show your appreciation to the person serving you a meal, the person cashing out your groceries, or a local merchant or driver who keep things open, and stocked, so we don’t go without the things we need most.

Say a simple, “Thanks!” and I know you will make someone’s day.

We all know how true this is. So just be different, and be kind ...

Since purchasing “007” Dave has made plenty of modifications. A airraid cold air intake, a Ford racing exhaust Steeda aluminum driveshaft and a SCT 93 tune.

His future plans for the vehicle are to complete more modifications, take it to national and local shows, and do a bit of racing. “007” has plenty of shows and cruises to enjoy, just serve them shaken, not stirred.

From the Driver's Seat...

Hi BAM! Members and Friends.

I hope you all are surviving the heat, humidity and rain as well as can be expected. As I'm writing this message I'm thinking about the month of August and what's ahead for us. It's HOT! For us that live in Florida, it's another hot, humid and rainy month - yippee! But that doesn't stop BAM! from hosting a variety of fun activities for our members and friends.

As for past events, we had a Parks Ford Rise & Shine Car meet scheduled for July 3rd but we had to cancel due to heavy rains that morning. This is sad, but while we can plan events we can't control the weather. However, luckily we have another one scheduled for Saturday, August 7th. Remember, Parks Ford is one of our BAM! sponsors and they usually provide donuts and coffee or sandwiches to all participants. Free breakfast, that's what gets my attention. By the way, last time the donuts were freshly made and awesome. The catering truck also has other breakfast foods that are very delicious.

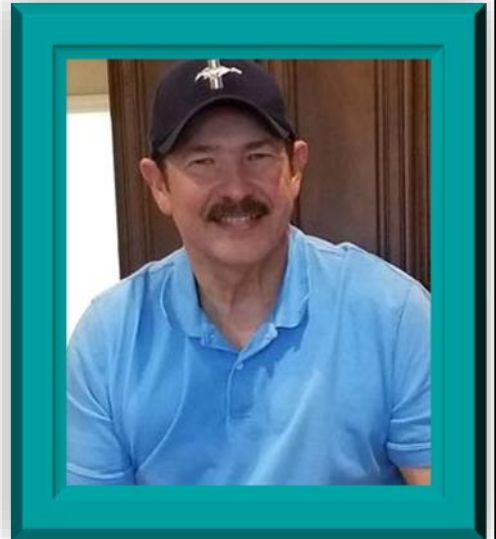

We will have a membership booth to recruit new members and I want to thank John Esposito for bringing the tent. We members of BAM! want to make sure we support our sponsor so come on out and join us. It starts the weekend off just right. Hope to see you at our next Rise & Shine at Park's Ford. If you miss this month, remember Parks Ford is doing this event on the first Saturday of every month.

On to other past events ... on Saturday, July 17th we had the Mustangs at the Museum event. We invited fellow BAM! members for a country cruise and then a tour of the Don Garlits Museum, in Ocala, followed by lunch at Cracker Barrel. Wow! What an awesome event. The Don Garlits Museum is unbelievable.

The history and memorabilia are out of this world and there is something for everyone. In the Drag Racing building they had about 90 drag race cars with a detailed history of drag racing. They also have an Antique Car building that has about 50 old historic classic vehicles. There is, literally, history and memorabilia everywhere you look. I want to thank Robbie for organizing another successful event for BAM! and Melinda for doing the flyer. Good job team!

By the way, if you see a picture of me cleaning the tables at Cracker Barrel for a hungry group of BAM! members and friends – it's fake news. LOL.

It's hot! We can all agree that the temperature and the humidity is getting hotter and hotter in Florida every summer day. Therefore, Robbie is putting together some indoor activities for us to have fun while staying cool. Our next activity is a Pins & Ponies bowling event for Saturday, August 7th. The flyer, with all the details, is included in this newsletter and also available on our BAM! website. Before the games begin, we will stop for lunch to "refuel" our engines. Yes, a cruise, lunch and bowling with fellow BAM! members and friends – life is beautiful. Please mark the date on your calendars and don't forget to RSVP to Melinda Morales. Let's have some fun! (Continued on Page 6)

WHY CHOOSE BAM?

For starters, because you want to have fun. You want to have fun with friends. You want to have fun with friends who also love Mustangs! What more could you ask for?

You might ask for a large choice in activities, great sponsors, games and plenty of entertainment.

You certainly will get all of this with BAM!

From the Driver's Seat...

And just to make sure you have something else to add to your calendars, we are planning a cruise for Saturday, September 18th. Details to follow.

Next, please mark your calendars and promote the Mustang Madness Car show scheduled for Saturday, October 30th. This event is themed on Halloween and promises to be a lot of fun. This event is open to all years of Mustangs and Ford vehicles. We'll have a great DJ, huge raffle, 50/50 drawing, costume contest ($50 cash for best male and female) and vendors. This will be people's Choice Voting. Remember we are a 501(c)3 charity, and this fundraiser car show is supporting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Tampa Bay.

For this show, not only will you have the chance to dress up in costume, we will also have a prize for "Best Dressed Car" so think about how you want to decorate your car in a Halloween theme.

In closing, I would like to encourage all of you to attend our next BAM! Gathering and other activities to show your support for our BAM! Club. Our Board is working very hard to make it a fun and successful year for BAM! I hope to see you all at our next activity or BAM! gathering.

Next-Gen Mustang NASCAR Is Built For EV Tech, Says Ford Exec

Ford revealed the next-gen Mustang NASCAR racer back in May following a camouflaged track teaser and an early leak that showed off the new race car in the flesh. Since then, we've gotten a chance to hear its V8 soundtrack as well. The design of the car itself is a bit of a throwback, as it looks far more like the road-going Ford Mustang than its predecessor. But in terms of powertrains, the next-gen Mustang NASCAR racer is much more forward-thinking.

"We're excited about what this platform does," Mark Rushbrook, Global Director of Ford Performance Motorsports, told Ford Authority executive editor, Alex Luft, in a recent interview. "It's an opportunity to future proof. We're great today with what's going to be racing in 2022, but we know as our world is changing with hybrid powertrains, full-electric powertrains, if we were going to do this new car as an industry, we have to make sure it's able to grow with the automotive world – what people are going to be parking in their driveways and garages."

"The ability to have a hybrid in there very easily in the very near future was important to us, something that NASCAR and the industry have already worked on," Rushbrook added. "We're able to do that. That's going to be important so that we can continue learning the technical innovation of hybrid systems, and beyond that to full electric cars, too. The future is coming pretty quickly. I think we're ready for it."

In addition to future-proofing the new NASCAR Mustang in the powertrain department, it's also considerably different from its predecessor – which has been in service since 2013. The new racer is wider, with a smaller greenhouse area, a new independent rear suspension, and new 18-inch aluminum wheels.

The next-gen NASCAR Ford Mustang will compete in the Cup Series starting next season when it makes its racing debut at the 64th annual Daytona 500 at Daytona International Speedway on February 20th, 2022.

“doin’” (as my Mustang Man would say), and take a stab at it.

My first project was assembling a chair. Oh sure, I had leftovers, even though I read the instructions, but as far as I’m concerned, having leftovers just means I’m good at not wasting unnecessary parts. Economies of scale or something like that. Finishing my chair gave me a great sense of accomplishment. Now I could see why Mustang Men love working with tools.

Summer is here and I know that many of us still aren’t very comfortable with traveling, so I think we Pony Princesses can have fun and put smiles on the faces of our Mustang Men by joining them in one of their favorite hobbies ... tooling.

First of all, we ladies all need our own tool kit. I recommend a pink set to distinguish our tools from theirs. Mine has a pink case with pink handles on the tools. Trust me, my tools have never, ever inadvertently ended up in his garage. My Mustang Man doesn’t even like to touch pink tools ... it’s as though the pink is going to rub off or something!

Once you have your very own tool set, find something around the house that needs

I showed my Mustang Man my accomplishment and then asked him to give the chair a try. Just before he sat down, his eyes locked onto the leftovers, and he jumped back up and began to give me a lecture about “over-doing-it.” (That’s “man talk” for ladies shouldn’t play with tools—like they are too sharp or something.) He insisted on taking the entire chair apart, and putting it back together ... his way. Oh, and with his own tools. Okay, I thought, this is teamwork, and isn’t that a good thing?

Then I realized that, going forward, all I need to do, to get him to complete “honey-dos,” is to get my pink tools out, toss a few screws around the project I want done, and he’ll take it from there.

I call this an “alteration” to the concept of teamwork. See ... ladies can play with tools, too ...

BAM! Events are so much fun ... and sometimes unexpectedly entertaining! Case in point, at are last BAM! Event we planned to have lunch at Cracker Barrel. We arrived for lunch and patiently waited for our table to be ready. Well, most of us waited patiently. Before we knew it we heard the hostesses chuckling amongst themselves as they discussed a BAM! member that was a little “over zealous” in helping them while they prepared our tables. Luckily, someone had the quick thinking to capture it on tape and Facebook now hosts a very funny video of our BAM! member in action. This person commandeered the cleaning equipment and was wiping down the tables. Once done with that, he offered to help seat some strangers while we waited. Once they stopped laughing, the hostesses decided they better seat our large group before this person found the entrance to the kitchen ...

Now you know that I don’t like to call out BAM! members by name, but if this picture looks surprising like our BAM! President, well, that might not be a coincidence ...

Used Ford Mustang Prices Have Substantially Increased From 2020

Used car prices have skyrocketed in recent months as the semiconductor chip shortage continues to wreak havoc on new vehicle inventory, leading to new records each and every month. Last month, the average used vehicle listing reached $25k for the first time ever, while even higher-mile used vehicles are selling for big money these days. However, some models are selling for greater premiums than others, and that includes the Lincoln Navigator, as Ford Authority reported yesterday, while used Ford Mustang prices are on the rise as well.

This news comes to us from iSeeCars, which just released new data revolving around the best and worst used cars to buy right now. Of the top ten used vehicles with the largest year-over-year price increases, the Mustang ranked ninth. Average used Ford Mustang prices have risen to $36,476, a whopping $10,656 or 41.3 percent more than last June.

“These sports cars are aspirational cars for many consumers, and even with a price increase, they are still relatively affordable compared to other vehicles in the segment,” said iSeeCars Executive Analyst Karl Brauer. “Sports cars surged in popularity during the pandemic as drivers sought fun cars to combat boredom, and since they aren’t practical purchases, people are likely more willing to pay a premium for them in the used car marketplace.”

While this is bad news for anyone in the market for a used Ford Mustang (or most used vehicles in general), there are signs that things may soon cool off at least a little in the coming months. Inventory actually improved in the month of June, and many experts believe that prices will begin to follow suit and start to decline in Q3.

“These used vehicles have proven to be appreciating assets over the past year – a circumstance not typically associated with used cars,” Brauer said. “Shoppers interested in these vehicles should consider holding off on purchasing them, while consumers who have these vehicles in their garage and are willing to part with them can take advantage of significantly higher trade-in values.”

2021 Ford Mustang Is Second Most American Vehicle In The World

As Ford Authority reported exactly one year ago, the Ford Ranger topped Cars.com's long-running American-Made Index for 2020.

As many shoppers continue to seek out American-made products, an increasingly difficult task these days, it's nice to know which vehicles are made in the U.S. and with American-made components. Now, Cars.com's 2021 American-Made Index has just been released, and things have changed considerably, though the 2021 Ford Mustang is the second most American vehicle in the world.

This year's study consists of 90 vehicles, which are ranked based on five criteria – the location of final assembly, percentage of U.S. and Canadian parts, country of origin for available engines, country of origin for available transmissions, and the number of U.S. manufacturing employees relative to the automaker's footprint.

This year, the Ranger was dethroned by the Tesla Model 3, which is built in Fremont, California. However, the Ford Mustang jumped a whopping 32 spots from last year's finish to come in second, thanks to the fact that the majority of its parts content comes from the U.S. and Canada, including its available engine and transmission choices. Of course, the Mustang is also produced at the Ford Flat Rock Assembly Plant in Michigan.

Unfortunately, the Ranger plummeted from its pole position as the most American vehicle in the world last year all the way down to 28th place this year. The Ranger is produced at the Ford Michigan Assembly Plant, alongside the Ford Bronco, along with various other plants around the world, as Ford's mid-size pickup is a truly global product.

Cars.com doesn't reveal its methodology behind these rankings, so it's hard to say exactly what caused the Ranger to slide so far. Regardless, a number of other Blue Oval models made the cut this year, including the Ford Expedition (11), Lincoln Navigator (20), Lincoln Aviator (21), Ford F-150 (29), Ford Explorer (44), Ford Escape (62), and Lincoln Corsair (64).

A BAM! Gathering

Thursday,
July 1st, 2021

Hello, fellow BAM! members. Marbles here. This last July we held our seventh monthly BAM! Gathering for the year, not that I'm counting or anything. Our Gatherings are held the first Thursday of every month, at Ford's Garage in Wesley Chapel.

These Gatherings are social times for BAM! members and anyone wanting to know more about BAM! We have a great dinner, games, a 50/50 drawing and a raffle. We had a great time, and a lot of laughter, as we played games, won prizes, and heard all the latest information on Mustangs. Make sure you don't miss out on our next Gathering. I'll see you there!

This month we had a couple of love birds: Wayne & Deborah Brannon (left) and Gilbert & Jeanette Gonzalez (center). Tracy Gaschler had a Mom's Nite Out as her mom joined us for our Gathering! (right)
