New Rev will adhere to the following Biblically based practices:

Love Truth: This means seeking, speaking and valuing the truth about ourselves, our family and friends, our community, and the world. All participants in this program are expected to practice speaking and seeking truth in all things. (Ex20:16,Ps86:11, Zc8:15-19,Jn8:31-32,14:6,Ep4:14-16,25-32)

Live Faithfully: This includes making promises and keeping commitments to ourselves and others. The practice of living faithfully with God and with each other is an expectation of all participants in this program. (Ps15,Ec5:1-7,Mt5:33-37,Gl3-4:7,Hb11-12:3)

Respond Gratefully: “If God is for us who or what can be against us.” This is a reason for thankfulness in all situations. It includes gratefully accepting the actual or perceived flaws in others by seeking and seeing their inherent value. The practice of gratitude in and for all of life is an expectation for participants in the program.
(Rm8:31,Rm12,Ep5:3-4,15-21,Cl3:12-17,1Th5:18,Hb12:28-29)

Practice Hospitality: Offering welcome to others is a key Biblical practice. While personal privacy is necessary, engaging with others in community is also necessary. Practicing hospitality includes common curtesy and communication with the staff and other members of this program. Practicing hospitality embraces outreach as well as in reach.
(Gn18:1-10,Mt25:35-46Ac2:46-47,Hb13:1-3,Jm1:1-4,Rv3:20)

Engage with Curiosity: Seeking knowledge is the main reason for attending college. It is also the focus that looks outside ourselves with authentic interest in the lives of others and events of this world. This also affects the way we interact with each other. The practice of engaging with curiosity involves asking questions and seeking understanding.
(Pv3:5-6,Mt7:1-5,Rm14,ICr9:19-23)

New Rev holds that Jesus Christ is our Lord and savior who died and rose again for our sins and the Bible is the word of God and our rule of life.

The application of these principles affirms that New Rev does not discriminate against, nor in favor, of anyone for any reason. If accepted into this community program you will be expected to conduct yourself in a manner that positively reflects New Rev to others.
