

Air Quality Assessments for Homes, Childcare Centers & Schools

School Assessments

- Identify Irritants
- Provide Recommendations
- Make children feel more comfortable in school setting

Home Assessments

- Identify Triggers
- Reduce Symptoms
- Analyze Home Environment

Breathe California's Air Quality Assessment Program will help clients learn how they can reduce their asthma symptoms in home, school, or child care settings.

For more information, or to schedule an appointment, call Nidhi Badiyani at: (408) 998-5865 or email at nidhi@lungsrus.org