Breathe California of the Bay Area to Host Neighborhood Sustainability Fair

SAN JOSE, CA – On Saturday, January 21st, 2017, Breathe California of the Bay Area (BCBA) will be hosting its first ever Neighborhood Sustainability Fair. Partnering with CVS and PG&E, the fair will be taking place at Bellarmine College Preparatory – 960 W. Hedding St., San Jose CA 95126 – from 8:30am-12:00pm. This event invites individuals of all ages to come out and learn the importance of sustainability practice and dispose of their e-waste at no charge. Further the goal is to provide advocate services to those suffering from lung disease, and teach policies that promote clean air and improve public health.

At the fair, participants will have many opportunities to discuss many facets of sustainability with companies from around the Bay Area, including Savers, Our City Forest, City of Santa Clara, Citizens Climate Lobby, Lexus, Clean Cities, Santa Clara Household Hazardous Waste, Green E-Waste Recycling Center, and more. These companies will showcase their sustainability methods and will provide interactive techniques including recycling, e-waste distribution, etc. Participants will learn about environmental programs happening throughout Santa Clara County.

There are many opportunities to be involved in this event by becoming a sponsor, donor, or volunteer. For more information, contact BCBA at (408) 998-5865.

About Breathe California of the Bay Area

Celebrating its 106th year in the Bay Area, Breathe California (BCBA) is a 501© non-profit organization which was founded in San Jose. BCBA is dedicated to fighting lung disease and advocating for clean air. As one of California's oldest voluntary health organizations, BCBA addresses the most critical lung health threats through prevention, education, patient support, research and advocacy.
